MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Mondher Bejaoui,
10 Cr. 553 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein:

This letter is submitted on behalf of Mondher Bejaoui, whom I was recently reappointed to represent in the above-entitled case, in regard to the Defendant's Proposed Examination of Potential Jurors and Proposed Request to Charge, both of which are due today, January 18, 2013. It is respectfully requested that a one-week extension, until next Friday, January 25, 2013, be granted for filing of Mr. Bejaoui's Proposed Examination of Potential Jurors and Proposed Request to Charge. Counsel did, however, file motions in limine on Mr. Bejaoui's behalf earlier today. My associate, Lindsay A. Lewis, Esq., spoke with Assistant United States Attorney Kan Nawaday, and he has informed her that the government does not object to this application.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that a one-week extension, until next Friday, January 25, 2013, be granted for filing of Mr. Bejaoui's Proposed Examination of Potential Jurors and Proposed Request to Charge. As set forth previously, the government does not object to this application.

Respectfully Submitted,

Joshua L. Dratel
